

Florida Anthropological Society 64th Annual Meeting
Florida Underwater Archaeology Conference 12th Annual Meeting
Mission San Luis
2100 W. Tennessee St., Tallahassee, Florida
 May 11-13 2012

Program Schedule

Friday, May 11

Time	Event	Meeting Space
8 AM - Noon	FPAN Board Meeting	Kislack Classrooms
11 PM - 1 PM	Trail of Florida's Indian Heritage	Conference Room
1 PM - 2 PM	FAC Executive Meeting	Conference Room
2 PM - 4 PM	FAC General Meeting	Education Building
1 PM - 4:30 PM	Registration	Lobby
2 PM - 4 PM	FAS Old Board Meeting	Kislack Classrooms
4:30 PM – 6:30 PM	Reception	Lobby/Balcony
6:30 PM - 7:15 PM	FAC Awards	Council House

Collections Tours: Tour of the National Park Service Southeast Archeological Center collections facility begins promptly starting 11 AM ending 12 PM and Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research collections facility beginning 1:30 ending 2:30. Don't miss this opportunity to view unique southeastern and Florida artifacts along with the facility curators. No charge, but registration is requested. This event is on your own. Parking will be available at each site and maps with directions will be posted on-line.

Program Schedule

Saturday, May 12

Time	Event	Meeting Space
8:00 AM - 2 PM	Registration	Lobby
8:30 AM - 11:50 AM	Concurrent Session I	Mission Room
8:30 AM - 11:50 AM	Concurrent Session II	Sun Trust Theatre
8:30 AM - 11:50 AM	Underwater Papers	Kislack Classrooms
8:30 AM - 11:50 AM	Poster Session	Balcony
10:10 AM - 10:30 AM	Break	Lobby
11:50 AM - 1:30 PM	Lunch Break (on your own)
1:30 PM - 4:10 PM	Concurrent Session I	Mission Room
1:30 PM - 4:10 PM	Concurrent Session II	Sun Trust Theatre
1:30 PM - 4:10 PM	Poster Session	Balcony
3:10 PM - 3:30 PM	Break	Lobby
4:15 PM - 5:15 PM	FAS General Membership	Kislack Classrooms

6:30 PM – 8:50 PM and New Board Meeting
Banquet and Awards Mission Room

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Bonnie McEwan, Director of Archaeology at Mission San Luis, noted researcher and author.

Awards:

FAS Chapter Awards
FAS Bullen Award
FAS Lazarus Award
FAS Board Award
FAC Lifetime Achievement Award
Chuck Wilde Archaeological Research Award

8:50 to 10:30 PM - Music and Dancing Mission Room

Program Schedule
Sunday, May 13

Guided Kayaking Eco-Adventure: Paddle the wild Wacissa and Aucilla Rivers and the 1850's slave canal with former and current Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research archaeologists and state geologist. Includes remote Deptford period mounds as well as the Page-Ladson Pre-Clovis site. Limited to 20 persons.

- Advanced beginner-level – some portage may be necessary.
- $65 per person includes kayak & gear, guides, and picnic lunch.
- Guests provide: drinking water (non-disposable bottles preferred), hat, sunblock. Water shoes suggested. No jeans, please.
- Register by May 6.
- 24 hour cancellation policy for refund
- Tours will begin at 8:30 AM at Wilderness Way, about 12 miles south of Tallahassee, then by van to the put-in spot. Tour will last approx. 7 hours.
- Please call or email to register.

Book direct with:
The Wilderness Way
850.877-7200
georgia@thewildernessway.net

10 AM – 12 PM Chapter Workshop Kislack Classrooms
This Chapter Workshop is intended for Chapter Representatives and members to engage in a guided dialogue with other chapters to discuss opportunities, challenges and solutions at the chapter level. Each Chapter Representative should make every effort to attend the Workshop. One slot will be reserved for each Chapter's Representative on Sunday's 9 o'clock Behind the Scenes Tour of San Luis to avoid a scheduling conflict.

Behind the Scenes Tour of San Luis archaeological site and lab: Tour conducted by San Luis staff archaeologists. One hour tours begin at 9, 10 and 11 A.M just outside the main entrance to the Conference Center. Each group is limited to 30 participants except the 9 o'clock tour will reserve 16 slots for Chapter Reps. attending the Chapter Roundtable at 10. No charge, but for planning purposes we do ask that you let us know if you plan to attend on your registration form. There will be a sign up sheet for specific times at the registration desk at San Luis.

Workshops at the Mission on Sunday Morning

Blacksmithing for Beginners

9:00 – 11:00 a.m. or 12:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Members: $15

Non-members: $20

Join us at the Mission San Luis forge for a two hour, hands-on introduction to blacksmithing. You will learn basic hammering and cutting techniques, as well as fire maintenance in a traditional Spanish-style forge. Participants must wear long pants and closed-toe shoes.

Saint Martha's Hearth Historic Cooking Class

10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Members: $15

Non-members: $20

Gather around the fire and gossip with the cooks while preparing colonial meals. Learn about the Spanish and Apalachee foodways traditions and the influences they had on each other. Participants must wear closed-toe shoes.

General Information:

We are pleased that the Mission is offering these professionally done workshops to FAS 2012 participants. There is a fee of $15 for members of Mission San Luis or $20 for non-members. You can become a member through the Mission Website or by phone. All workshop fees must be paid at least two weeks in advance to secure your space. Please make checks payable to the Friends of Mission San Luis (FOMSL).

Spaces are strictly limited, so please register early. To sign up for a workshop, please call Lindsay Douglas or anyone at MSL Visitor Services at 850-245-6406 and ask for the FAS workshops.

Note on Parking at Mission San Luis

Mission San Luis is a state facility and is open to the public during some of times that FAS 2012 is scheduled. In order to avoid interfering with the public's access, arrangements have been made for FAS attendee parking.

On Friday morning a section of the main lot immediately west (left) of the conference facility will be marked off for FAS attendees. Additional parking, if needed, will be available in the archaeology lab lot immediately east (right) of the conference facility. Beginning at 2:30 volunteer attendants with orange vests will direct attendees to parking.

On Saturday volunteer attendants in orange vests will be on duty starting at 8 AM until 4 P.M. to direct FAS attendees to parking. After 4 PM the facility is closed to the public and parking for the banquet will be anywhere in the main lot.

Hotel Arrangements:

The Aloft Hotel at 200 N. Monroe St. (corner of N. Monroe and W. Tennessee St.) in downtown Tallahassee has set aside a block of rooms for FAS 2012. Aloft is a fresh and modern boutique hotel with great beds, 42” flat screens that connect to your laptop, a bar and a gym. You will find it an easy walk to the historic Capitol, Museum of Florida History, as well as excellent restaurants and bars. It is a straight shot of 2.5 miles out Tennessee Street to Mission San Luis (about 8 minutes). The Aloft has kindly expanded their shuttle hours to accommodate FAS guests. The shuttle will be available from 7 AM to 1 PM and 3:30 PM to 8:15 PM on Friday and 7:30 to 11 AM and 4PM to 11:30 PM on Saturday.

1. The rate is $89 plus tax and is available for 3 days either side of 5/9-5/12, 2012.
2. Parking charge is waived.
3. Book early. This rate is available only until April 9, 2012. After this date reservations will be accepted on a space and rate available basis.
4. The toll free reservations number is: 1-866-716-8146.
5. Why not come early or extend your trip and see all Tallahassee has to offer? To find out more see: <http://www.visittallahassee.com/>

