Hotel Information

Hotel Arrangements:

The Aloft Hotel at 200 N. Monroe St. (corner of N. Monroe and W. Tennessee St.) in downtown Tallahassee has set aside a block of rooms for FAS 2012. Aloft is a fresh and modern boutique hotel with great beds, 42" flat screens that connect to your laptop, a bar, pool and a gym. You will find it an easy walk to the historic Capitol, Museum of Florida History, as well as excellent restaurants, bars and historic districts. It is a straight drive of 2.5 miles out Tennessee Street to Mission San Luis (about 8 minutes). The Aloft has kindly expanded their shuttle hours to accommodate FAS guests. The shuttle will be available from 7:00 AM to 1:00 PM, and 3:30 PM to 8:15 PM on Friday, 7:30 to 11:00 AM, and 4:00 PM to 11:30 PM on Saturday.

1. The FAS conference rate is $89 plus tax and is available for 5/11-5/13, 2012 as well as for three nights on either side of 5/11-5/13.

2. Parking charge is waived.

3. Book early. This rate is available only until April 9, 2012. After this date, reservations will be accepted on a space and rate available basis.

4. To book: if you are only booking for the nights of 5/11, 5/12 or 5/13 please call 1-877-GO-ALOFT. If you are booking 5/11-5/13 as well as any of three nights on either side of 5/11-5/13 please call (850) 513-0313. Be sure to ask for the Florida Anthropological Society conference rate when you call. If you need to make any changes in your reservation at any time please call Terry Daniel, Director of Sales, at the Tallahassee Aloft, at 850-577-5903.

5. Why not come early or extend your trip and see all historic Tallahassee has to offer? To find out more see: <http://www.visittallahassee.com/> . You may find History and Heritage under the "Things To Do" tab especially interesting.
